Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

Kilauea Point Natural History Association adopted the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes, on October 1, 2008. As required by the uncertain tax position guidance in ASC 740, Kilauea Point Natural History Association would recognize the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position after an audit. At the adoption date, Kilauea Point Natural History Association applied the uncertain tax position guidance in ASC 740 to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations has remained open, including Kilauea Point Natural History Association's status as a tax-exempt organization and its lack of unrelated business income. As a result of the implementation of the uncertain tax position guidance in ASC 740, Kilauea Point Natural History Association has not recognized an additional liability for unrecognized tax benefits nor any interest or penalties as of September 30, 2019. Management does not anticipate that this will change significantly in the next twelve months. Kilauea Point Natural History Association files income tax returns in the U. S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Hawaii. Tax regulations within each jurisdiction are subject to interpretation of the related tax laws and regulations and require significant judgment to apply. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2016.

Part IV - Additional Information

In 1998, the organization endowed a scholarship in the memory of Dan Moriarty, a former Refuge Manager, environmental educator, and conservationist. The goal of the program is to foster a greater awareness and protection of native Hawaiian ecosystems by supporting the college education of students from Hawai'i studying in associated fields, with the hope that they will return to Kauai and further the cause of environmental conservation.

Annually, the organization announces an open scholarship process, accepts applications, and reviews them by a Selection Committee comprised of Board Members. Recipients are selected based upon best fit with the goals of the scholarship program, demonstrated passion for the mission of the organization and other criteria. The Committee recommends scholarship awards up to $3,000 each for the Board of Directors to review and approve. Once awarded, scholarships are applied directly to college or university expenses.

The organization accepts gifts to support the restricted fund and, through a Board motion, adds to the fund when possible.

Part II Declaration and Signature Authorization of Officer

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I am an officer of the above organization and that I have examined a copy of the organization's 2018 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements and to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the organization's electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the organization's return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (c) the date of any refund. If applicable, I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the organization's federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the organization's electronic return and, if applicable, the organization's consent to electronic funds withdrawal.
